

Team Korea is the Champ

wins the 11th Expat Cup in style

The Capital witnessed a battle of different kinds. The Expat Golf Cup—an annual fixture on the Golf arena was back again with a bang this year and saw participation of more than 100 expats all rearing to engage in a friendly war. The event was held at picturesque Jaypee Greens Golf Resort at Wishtown Noida.

The enthusiasm of the players was so great that most of them registered for the next event at the conclusion itself.

The ambassador's shield was won by H.E Mr. V Namgyel, Ambassador Royal Bhutanese Embassy.

The dinner itself was a melting pot of cultures as expat CEO's, Diplomatic heads; Heads of various international organizations interacted, truly an event "Sans frontiers".

"The Expat Cup spreads good will amongst the citizens of various countries, I give unconditional support to the event" was the message from H.E. Le Yucheng, Ambassador of China, China being the partner country of the Expat Cup.

"The event was supported by Late Mr. Lalit Suri and it is a privilege to continue the patronage to the event and be the hospitality partners." said Mrs. Jyotsna Suri, CMD, Lalit Group

The Expat Cup—brainchild of Mr. Anil Dev, MD, Sports & Leisure Worldwide provides excitement to the now burgeoning Expat community in India. The event provides a great opportunity to the companies dealing with the expats to showcase their products and entertain their Expat customers.

The event also has Santa Fe Relocation as the Gold Sponsor and was the launch pad for number of companies. This year Pathways World School also partnered the event.

'The Expat Cup provides interaction with the correct target market and we are proud to be associated with the event' said Dr. Sarvesh Naidu, Executive Director, Pathways School, Aravalli.

The event was also supported by Jaypee Infra, Air China, First Rand Bank, Coca Cola, Pressto, Uber Cabs, Goqii, Kingfisher Beer and Pernod Ricard.
